"TERROR TRAIL"

Episode Thirteen

"The Forest of Fear"

HUNCH HENDERSON starts out in a power-boat to search the waters about the scene of the shipwreck for any signs of the operatives.

A weary week passes with no sign of Bruce. Elaine questions the hermit. He tells her for the first time of the shark menace and says he is sure that Bruce is dead. Elaine refuses to believe this. The hermit's manner suddenly changes. He tells Elaine that he loves her and will make her white queen of all that great land if she will marry him. Horrified, she refuses to consider it. Becoming more ardent, the hermit is attacked by one of his own animals which Elaine has befriended. She escapes from the house as the hermit is torn to pieces.

Bruce makes his escape from the savage village just as they are about to put him into an ordeal of fire. He flees into the jungle and makes his way back to the hermit's. There he finds a mangled body but no sign of Elaine. Searching madly for her, he finds a couple of dogs used by the hermit to track animals. Giving them the scent, Bruce sets out for Elaine. Another friend also misses her. This is the elephant. He tugs at his chain until it breaks. Going to the house, he also picks up the trail and sets out after Elaine.

In the jungle, Elaine is beset by wild animals. She kills one as it leaps upon her, but exhausted by the effort she sinks down into the underbrush and finds refuge in slumber. Bruce loses her trail where she crosses a stream. But the elephant keeps on after her and finds her just as some lions are creeping upon her. He picks her up and carries her—and so Bruce finds her.
